

Busan Architecture & Urban Photo Competition 2024

1. Theme

city of a moment

Photography is the art of moments.

Cameras were invented in the 19th century, and through many technological developments, today, cell phones are equipped with cameras, making it easy for anyone to take pictures. People have gained the ability to sublimate moments into art by accurately observing and freezing moments in the constantly flowing time through cameras, which are optical machines.

Meanwhile, cities are a product of continuous time.

Among cities, there are many cities with a history of hundreds of years, as well as over a thousand years.

Busan also started as a small town in Byeonhan during the Three Han Dynasties, and took on the appearance of a city of trade and commerce with the establishment of Busanjin during the Joseon Dynasty. In modern times, it grew during the Japanese colonial period and took on the name 'Busan City' after liberation.

It played an important role as a temporary capital during the Korean War, and is currently known to the world as the second-largest city in Korea.

The '2024 Busan Architecture and City Photo Exhibition' aims to capture the city with such a long history and tradition in a fleeting photograph of art, revealing the invisible inner skin of the city we live in and honestly tracing the moments of architecture taking root within it. This is the true meaning of
